

All separated and divorced Catholics.

The association of Separated and divorced Catholics aims to provide practical and spiritual support to all members, through other members of the group. Every Catholic practicing or not, in whatever circumstances, is eligible for membership.